Dr Andrew Lewis

CONFERENCE SPEAKER • ACTING SPECIALIST • MASTER TRAINER

Most people think acting is about pretending. Andrew Lewis has spent 30 years showing leaders that it's actually about telling the truth.

A former TV director and Head of Performance at the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts (WAAPA) and the WA Screen Academy, Andrew has trained and directed thousands of performers — including several well-known Australian actors.

Today, he brings world-class performance principles to organisations, helping leaders communicate with clarity, show up with presence, and build teams that trust, connect and collaborate at a deeper level.

His keynote style blends humour, humanity, storytelling and psychology — creating sessions that audiences talk about long after the conference ends.

TOPICS

STOP ACTING. GET REAL.

Authentic Communication for Leaders at Work

Why authenticity beats performance — and how leaders can drop the armour, build trust, and communicate with impact.

THE ENSEMBLE MINDSET

How High-Performing Teams Really Work

Lessons from elite acting ensembles: deep listening, status agility, presence and psychological safety. Ideal for teams seeking stronger collaboration and connection.

ACT WELL. LIVE WELL.

The Actor's Toolkit for Thriving at Work and in Life

How presence, play, imagination and adaptability can help people build resilience, navigate change and unlock new possibilities for growth and wellbeing.

“Andrew brought warmth, humour and depth that resonated with every person in the room. The feedback was phenomenal — people spoke about it for weeks.”

- Alison Shamir

“He connected instantly with our audience. Thought-provoking, engaging and completely original. A highlight of our conference.”
